New Roles for Women

There was an urgent need for women to enter the workforce to help with the war effort and to keep the nation's economy going.

· Over 6 million women entered the workforce, replacing men that joined the military.

1942: a woman grinds the points on drills, and the drills will be used in the war effort.

- · "Rosie the Riveter"
 symbolized the millions of women that worked in factories producing planes, tanks, ships, and other war goods.
- · Women enjoyed a newfound confidence in their ability and right to work outside of the home and many began to earn salaries equal to men.

We Can Do It!

Rosie the Riveter
Artist: J. Howard Miller

"Rosie the Riveter" Lyrics by Redd Evans and John Jacob Loeb, 1942

All the day long,

Whether rain or shine,

She's a part of the assembly line.

She's making history,

Working for victory,

Rosie the Riveter.

Keeps a sharp lookout for

sabatoge,

Sitting up there on the fuselage.

That little girl will do more than a male will do.

Rosie's got a boyfriend,

Charlie.

Charlie, he's a Marine.

Rosie is protecting Charlie,

Working overtime on the riveting machine.

When they gave her a production "E,"

She was as proud as she could be.

There's something true about,

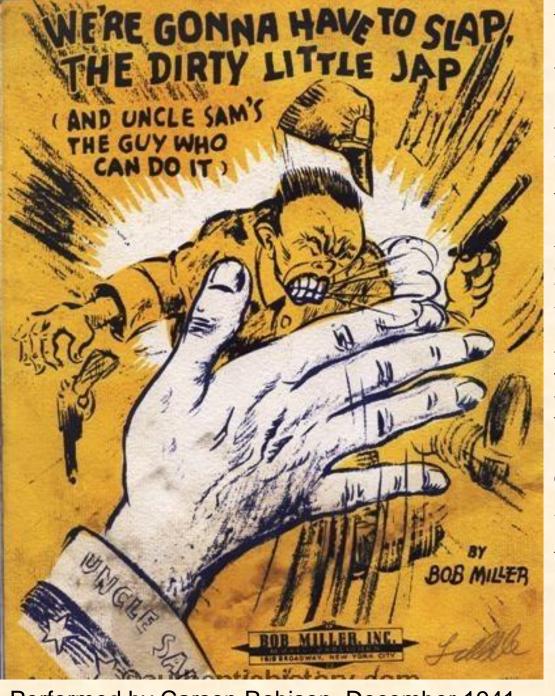

Red, white, and blue about,

Rosie the Riveter.

Relocation of Japanese Americans

· After the attack on Pearl Harbor, many Americans questioned the loyalty of Japanese Americans, fearing they may act as spies or help Japan invade the U.S.

Performed by Carson Robison, December 1941

We're gonna have to slap the dirty little Jap And Uncle Sam's the guy who can do it We'll skin the streak of yellow from this sneaky little fellow And he'll think a cyclone hit him when he's thru it We'll take the double crosser to the old woodshed We'll start on his bottom and go to his head

When we get thru with him he'll wish that he was dead We gotta slap the dirty little Jap We're gonna have to slap the dirty little Jap And Uncle Sam's the guy who can do it The Japs and all their hooey will be changed into chop suey And the rising sun will set when we get thru it Their alibi for fighting is to save their face For ancestors waiting in celestial space We'll kick their precious face down to the other place We gotta slap the dirty little Jap

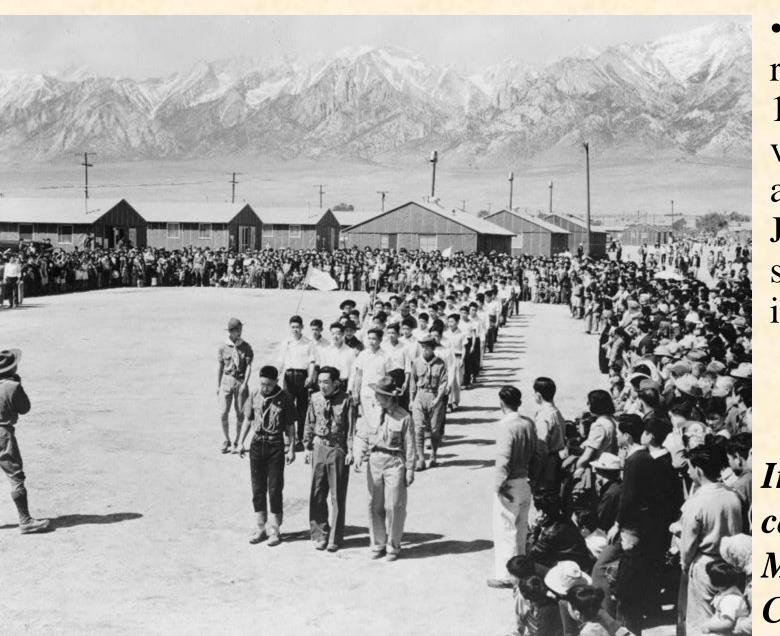

The Wartime Relocation Agency (WRA) forced approximately 120,000 Japanese Americans to...

...sell their homes and businesses,

and relocate to inland camps, living in crowded barracks behind barbed wire.

• They were released in 1944, after victory against the Japanese seemed imminent.
